

VILLA AGREES TO CONSIDER WILSON NOTE

Will Ask Carranza to Confer on President's Plan

HOPES TO AVOID U.S. INTERVENTION

General Villa has agreed to consider the suggestions contained in President Wilson's note, according to a dispatch received from Mexico City. Carranza, who is in command of the Mexican government, is expected to confer with the president on the subject of the Carranza-Villa agreement.

SAN MARINO THROWS 'WHOLE WEIGHT' IN WAR

Udine, June 7.—The tiny and picturesque republic of San Marino, whose army on a war footing is well over nine hundred men, is the latest to have thrown its whole weight into the war against Germany and Austria.

LONE AVIATOR HURLS ZEPPELIN MILE TO EARTH

Canadian Spirals Above Dirigible and Drops Six Bombs.

London, June 7.—For the first time on record a Zeppelin in the air has been destroyed by an aviator in an aeroplane.

DUTCHMAN HERE TO URGE PLANS FOR MEDIATION

Washington, June 7.—Van Ghell Geldemeester, son of the religious adviser to Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, has in a short visit to Washington, after conferences in Berlin with high German officials, set in motion much speculation in official and diplomatic quarters here about the possibility of peace in Europe.

Wilson Justifies Delay; Censorship Drawn Tight on Wireless to Germany

Close Watch Started on Messages To and From Germany

SUPERVISION WILL BE REAL

No Reason Given for Sudden Change in Hitherto Lax Methods.

GERMANY INTOLERABLE; GREAT EXODUS OF AMERICAN RESIDENTS UNDER WAY

[By Cable to The Tribune.]

Wording of U.S. Reply to Berlin Requires Utmost Care.

EXPERTS PASS ON EACH WORD

Bryan Said to Urge Delay and Milder Language.

Complains That Oregon Attacked When He Checked Fight.

General Villa has complained that the Carranza government has attacked him when he checked the fighting. He has also complained that the Carranza government has attacked him when he checked the fighting.

KING CONSTANTINE SLIGHTLY BETTER

Passes a Disturbed Night, but Temperature Is Lower.

London, June 7.—In a dispatch from Athens dated Monday, Reuters correspondent says concerning the condition of King Constantine: "A bulletin issued at 8 o'clock this morning says that the king has lost the fever which has been his ailment, but that the temperature is slightly better, but that the king is still in a disturbed state of mind. Repeated attacks of vomiting prevented the king from taking any food. His general condition, however, is relatively good. At noon today the patient's temperature was 99.5°."

PLANE OVERTURNS AS CRAFT EXPLODES

Flaming Mass Falls on Nunery, Killing Two Sisters—Crew of Twenty-eight Dead.

London, June 7.—For the first time on record a Zeppelin in the air has been destroyed by an aviator in an aeroplane.

BUT HIS MISSION IS PERSONAL ONLY

Washington, June 7.—Van Ghell Geldemeester, son of the religious adviser to Queen Wilhelmina of Holland, has in a short visit to Washington, after conferences in Berlin with high German officials, set in motion much speculation in official and diplomatic quarters here about the possibility of peace in Europe.

NEW CENSORS ON DUTY

Managers of Plant Supposed Owned by Germany Largely Increasing Its Capacity.

There has been a sudden tightening up of the United States government censorship over the wireless station at Sayville, Long Island, supposed to be owned by the German government, and one of the few mediums through which Berlin can communicate with the outside world, apart from lines that run through the hands of her enemies.

All Germany Convinced Americans Are Bluffing

People Believe United States Would Compromise on Principles or Anything Else to Avoid Fighting, and Government Does Nothing to Enlighten Them.

Wants Note Unimpeachable

Questions of such serious moment are involved in the wording of the new note that the President is anxious that the communication not only shall meet his own wishes but shall be unimpeachable from the point of view of experts in international law.

Expect Carranza Reply at Washington To-day

Washington, June 7.—There has been no word from Carranza to-day, but it is expected that a reply will be received from Carranza to-day.

COURT RULE MAKES DUKE A BIGAMIST

Reverses Decree of Divorce After Massari Weds Again.

New Orleans, June 7.—A decree of absolute divorce granted by the Civil District Court in New Orleans to the Duke of Massari from his first wife was set aside today by the Louisiana Supreme Court. After the divorce had been granted, the duke married Countess Rita Zucconi here.

FOREST FIRE SPREADS

Many Cottages at Star Lake Are Threatened.

Ogdensburg, N. Y., June 7.—Many cottages at the west end of Star Lake, in the Adirondacks, are threatened by a forest fire raging in the area.

TOSSED BACK BOMBS HURLED BY GERMANS

T. Atkins, Lying in Crater Made by Shell, Emerges Safe from Grenade Rain.

London, June 7.—The exploit of a British soldier who lay in the crater made by a shell and hurled back at the Germans bombs which they tossed into the excavation to kill him is related in a dispatch by the official observer of the Great Eastern.

AUSTRIA CUTS OFF SWISS

Stops Communication by Telegraph and Telephone.

Berne, June 7.—Communication by telegraph and telephone between Switzerland and Austria has been interrupted by order of the Austrian government.

RUSSIA STRAINING TO MAKE MUNITIONS

Every Possible Industry Set at Work Supplying Armies in the Field.

London, June 8.—"The Times" Petrograd correspondent describes how the Russian authorities are organizing every possible industry for the production of ammunition, running factories day and night with three shifts of men and engaging every available specialist, and in addition all students of the technical colleges.

GERMANY RELEASES GUNS FOR BULGARIA

Danish Shipments Detained by Kaiser Allowed to Proceed.

London, June 8.—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Copenhagen says: "The Danish ministry has received word from Berlin that the automatic guns destined for Denmark for Bulgaria which it was recently reported had been seized by the Germans are on their way to Bulgaria."

Zeppelins Drop Bombs On British Naval Port

Harwich, Forty Miles from London, Attacked—By Gaining Foothold on Essex Coast, Germans Could Cut Off Capital.

Berlin, June 7 (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—An official statement issued here today says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortified mouth of the Humber on the east coast of England; the naval port of Harwich (in Essex), England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich. They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped, and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank or oil tank which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railroad depot.

Zeppelins Drop Bombs On British Naval Port

Harwich, Forty Miles from London, Attacked—By Gaining Foothold on Essex Coast, Germans Could Cut Off Capital.

Berlin, June 7 (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—An official statement issued here today says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortified mouth of the Humber on the east coast of England; the naval port of Harwich (in Essex), England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich. They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped, and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank or oil tank which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railroad depot.

Zeppelins Drop Bombs On British Naval Port

Harwich, Forty Miles from London, Attacked—By Gaining Foothold on Essex Coast, Germans Could Cut Off Capital.

Berlin, June 7 (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—An official statement issued here today says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortified mouth of the Humber on the east coast of England; the naval port of Harwich (in Essex), England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich. They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped, and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank or oil tank which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railroad depot.

Zeppelins Drop Bombs On British Naval Port

Harwich, Forty Miles from London, Attacked—By Gaining Foothold on Essex Coast, Germans Could Cut Off Capital.

Berlin, June 7 (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—An official statement issued here today says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortified mouth of the Humber on the east coast of England; the naval port of Harwich (in Essex), England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich. They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped, and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank or oil tank which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railroad depot.

Zeppelins Drop Bombs On British Naval Port

Harwich, Forty Miles from London, Attacked—By Gaining Foothold on Essex Coast, Germans Could Cut Off Capital.

Berlin, June 7 (by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.).—An official statement issued here today says: "On the night of June 4 and 5 German naval dirigibles attacked the fortified mouth of the Humber on the east coast of England; the naval port of Harwich (in Essex), England, and the harbor establishment at Harwich. They were conspicuously successful. Many bombs were dropped, and there was a large number of explosions. One particularly violent explosion was that of a gas tank or oil tank which was hit. Bombs were dropped on the railroad depot.

SAYS GERMANS ISSUE FALSE U.S. PASSPORTS

Spy Said to Have Confessed Name of Maker, Page Cables.

Washington, June 7.—Ambassador Page has advised the State Department of the circulation in London of stories that Robert Rosenthal, a German, held there as a spy, recently made a confession in which he charged that Captain von Prieger, of the German Admiralty Office, had a complete equipment for issuing fraudulent American passports.

TREATY MAY KEEP RUMANIA NEUTRAL

London, June 7.—The following wireless dispatch was received here today from Berlin: "Political discussions in Bucharest, Rumania, have brought to light the fact that there exists a formal treaty among Austria, Germany and Rumania. This treaty, which runs until 1920, regulates the relations among these countries and binds Rumania, in case of war, not to attack her allies."